Class Rule changes for 2009 approved. Areas reviewed included but not limited to

- Design exceptions for canting keels
- John Glanville to add statement in rules to effect that: one design ratings are to address the unique configuration of the rig and equipment of a class, and not unique sailing rules.
- Rule 87
- Asymmetrical Sails and Code 0
- Attachment of pole to mast
- Retrofitting bow sprints for Asymmetrical spinnakers - As the measurement of the J increases, so does the penalty increase; Less than 5% increase is a 3 second penalty; Greater than 5% increase is a 6 second penalty

545 renewals as of 5/26/09; 529 same period 2008
